Muhammad Javed is a renowned painter and writer. Since his graduation in Fine Art from National College of Arts, Lahore in 1962, he is exhibiting his paintings in various group exhibitions and has nine solo shows at his credit held in the country and abroad. He has been an MIT scholar and is winner of First Annual Distinguished Artist Award from MIT, USA in 1989. His artwork has historic relevance, which is representative of realities of life developed through process of creating interesting forms, building strong composition by dividing space, delineating objects and manipulating the canvas with great skill. Due to his thought-provoking work and individual style he was selected and included with other thirty-eight western artists in a book published in German language.

Mr. Javed is a well-travelled artist and has also painted his vision during his trips to different countries. He is a member of the Executive Committee of Punjab Artist Association and recipient of its Award conferred in 2019 at the occasion of 33rd Exhibition of AAP and 16th National Exhibition of Paintings.

In 2013, a book "A Man of the Arts – Muhammad Javed" edited by Dr. Shaukat Mahmood was published comprising views and reviews of various prominent art critics and writers covering about five decades of his career as painter. Another book on his work and life "Muhammad Javed - A Versatile Artist" is under publication containing M Phil thesis done in 2017 by Shabnam Abbasi a research Scholar from University of the Punjab, Lahore.
